ACHS Safety Patrol Does Good Work

On Wednesday, May 23rd, officers for the 1973-74 school session were elected for the Appomattox County High School Safety Patrol.

Officers shown above, from left to right, are Nancy Richardson, Chairman of the Program Committee; Dona Steppe, Program Committee; John Scruggs, Program Committee; Robert Harvey, newly elected President; Barry Jones, outgoing president; Hope Paulette, outgoing vice-president; Gary Hudson, outgoing secretary; Mr. H. A. Paulette, sponsor; and Linda Sullivan, outgoing reporter and newly elected Secretary. Not available for picture were Darlene Forest, newly elected vice - president; Cheryl Robinson, newly elected reporter; and Teresa Garrett, newly elected member of the program committee.

According to Mr. H. A. Paulette, Supervisor of Transportation for Appomattox County Schools and sponsor for the Bus Safety Patrol, these students do a real good job - rain or shine -- they get out and flag traffic and watch little children across the roads to be sure of their safety. He stated further that he really appreciates what the students are doing in the Bus Safety Patrol Program.

APPOMATTOX RETIRED TEACHERS' MEETING

On Thursday, May 24, at 12:30 p.m. the APPOMATTOX COUNTY RETIRED TEACHERS gathered for a luncheon at Maude's Restaurant. In addition to the twenty-eight teachers in attendance, there were special guests present, including Mrs. Agnes Rowbotham of Lynchburg, Mrs. Evelyn Ferguson of Richmond, and Mrs. Martin Webb and Mrs. Ella Anderson of Appomattox.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Webb presented a most interesting review of Jesse Stuart's book, GOD'S ODDLING. This is a biography of his father, Mitchell Stuart and it portrays in captivating manner the character of this rugged, stealing man of the mountains of Kentucky. Stuart said of his father, "He was as permanent as a mountain. He read earth's surface, trees, plants, and land. He was educated from the soil."

After hearing Mrs. Webb's most lucid presentation, one felt almost as if he had met Mr. Stuart in person. To the review, Mrs. Anderson added some entertaining remarks about the author,with whom she had attended college in Tennessee.

Later, a brief business session was held, and the following committee chairmen were appointed: Mrs. Frances Cheatham, Program and Activities; Mrs. Florence Trent, Social and Fellowship; Miss Nola Burkey, Historical; Mrs. Helene Harvey, Publicity; Mrs. Thelma Martin, Membership; Curt Stone, Leslie King was in charge of devotional and refreshments for this meeting in the home of our leader, Mrs. Christine Mac - Kenzie.

Modernistic Club News Bulletin

Sunday was a busy day in Appomattox, Va., as well as a rainy one, but that did not stop the good works from going on, as usual.

Regular preaching service was held at First Baptist Church, and I learned that the service was well attended, and the offering was good for the morning worship.

Rev. R. Q. Lawing and his good people from Promise Land Baptist Church were special guest at the Memorial Baptist Church, in Washington, D. C. Sunday, May 28, at the 11:00 o'clock hour. We learned that an excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. Lawing and the choir rendered splendid music, on this special occasion. We are happy that the trip was successful.

We visited the sick Sunday and tried to do what we could for those who were in need of our help.

We invite the Women of Galilee Woman's Club to keep in mind the monthly meeting, Tuesday before the third Sunday in the month, and try to attend if possible. We trust that you will remember the date.

We were sorry that we were not with the Jordan Baptist Women, Sunday, in their annual Woman's Day Program but we do hope that the program was successful as usual.

The Appomattox County Education Association held its last meeting for the year May 23, 1973, at 3:15 p.m. at Appomattox Intermediate School Cafeteria, it was really an enjoyable affair. The luncheon was delicious, and the program rendered was very good. Mesdames Sarah White, retired from the system, and H. P. James received her pin for twenty five years of service as a teacher in the county. We were all proud of these two individuals, who had given their best service to the county on this special occasion. We trust that success will continue to follow both of them.

The Appomattox Retired Local Association held its meeting Thursday at 12:30 at Maude's Place. A very enjoyable meeting was held, and the members had increased nicely over the last meeting held. Every one injoyed the luncheon, as well as the business session. The association will be notified as to when the next meeting will be held.

In and out of town

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin visited relatives, and friends over the weekend in Appomattox, Va. While here they attended the Eighty-Seventh Commencement Exercises at the Virginia College, Virginia Seminary, Lynchburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin along with Ms. H. B. Stevens, attended the National Alumni Association Meeting held at the College May 28, 1973, at 1:00 p.m. After the business session was over a delicious luncheon was served to the association.

Impressive Memorial Service was held for the deceased who had left the group since the last meeting. At the close of the National Alumni Association meeting, the Martin's and Ms. Stevens were invited over to Mr. an Ms. Harry Ferguson's for the evening. A delicious dinner was served to the guest by Mr. and Ms. Ferguson before leaving for the commencement exercises held in Humbles Hall at 8:00 p.m. May 28,1973

Ms. Lucille Martin and Ms. Stevens had a nice short visit with Ms. Geneva A. Wiggins, who lived just across the Street from the Ferguson's. We had a very, very enjoyable chat with her and had a lovely evening with our friends of long standing.

The commencement exercises were great. The commencement speaker was our own President, from Virginia State College, Dr. Wendell P. Russell, Petersburg, Va.

The best part of the exercises was to see the Rev. Winston Rice Jones, receive the Bachelor of Arts in Theology, with a straight A average, because he is a county boy, and received his early training, and his high school education from the county school system and Carver Price High School," in Appomattox, Va. We take our hats off to Rev. Jones.

See you next week!!!

Christmas Cactus Blooms In May

Some people have trouble getting a Christmas Cactus to bloom at Christmas . . . not so with Mrs. Bessie Smith. The Christmas Cactus she is holding in the above photo was in full boom last Christmas and was in full bloom again last week. Maybe she can pass out hints on care of flowers and how to get such blooms on them.

Vacation Bible School at New Hope

Are you getting goose-bumps as June 9 draws nearer? We at New Hope are full of excitement and anticipation concerning the registration of pupils at New Hope Bible School on Saturday, June 9, and of the full week of study from June 11-15.

We have made brief mention of the nursery, of the three-year olds, and of the pre-school group. Perhaps now you would like to learn about the children, ages 6-8.

This six-through-eight group will be using the book, "Learning About God's Love and Care," a book intended to give the teacher of the group Bible study helps and lists of teaching resources. This study should be exciting and helpful to children because they will be learning about such great characters as Noah and Moses; they will get glimpses of Jesus as He traveled about the countryside, helping the sick and diseased; they will learn why God chose David to be king in spite of the sin in his life. As a concluding study, the children will learn that people of our day can receive a blessing from being with Jesus too, can receive power and guidance for daily living.

Naturally the teachers talk with the children about our mission work at home and abroad. They learn that all Christians can tell others about Jesus by the way they live and talk. Of interest to them too is the work of some missionaries from our association: Hazel Moon, Laura McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stewart.

One of the fast-moving and best-loved activities of the school is the daily Bible drill. Here the children get practice in finding various books of the Bible, as well as, specific verses. Such activities teach us all to use the Scriptures with more ease and, hopefully, to apply them to our problems.

Of course there is a period for arts and crafts, a time for real creativity.

Last of all, the children learn new games; they learn sharing; they learn new songs; they learn to pray aloud. This is just a little peep; come on down to join us and get the full story-under the supervision of Ruth Drinkard, Ottie Osborne, Judy Taylor, and Shirley O'Brien, with capable assistance from Karen Faye Carter and Betty Garrett.

Watch for a brief glimpse of children, ages 9-11, next week.

Brownie Troop 308 presented Mrs. Gail Flint, leader with a silver plate on Monday evening of last week in recognition of her work and service with the scouting program in our area. Mrs. Flint will be leaving Appomattox in June to join her husband in Quebec, Canada, where he has accepted a position. The Service Unit met later in the week and presented Mrs. Flint with a piece of luggage.

Shown above, two of the Brownies were presenting Mrs. Flint, on the right, with her gift. Standing with Mrs. Flint was Mrs. Marvis Reynolds, Assistant Leader.

Bridging Ceremonies For Brownie Troop

Girl Scouts of the Appomattox Service Unit, leaders and guests met at the Appomattox Intermediate School last week for their Bridging Ceremony.

The highlight of the program was having the Appomattox Elementary School Band, directed by Mr. Frank Coffey, play for the ceremonies.

Twenty-one Brownies from Troop 308, under the leadership of Mrs. Gail Flint and Mrs. Marvis Reynolds, "flew-up" to the Junior Troops.

Fifteen Junior Scouts from Troops 322 and 336 bridged to the Cadette Troop 311. Their leaders were Mrs. Dot Wooten, Miss Linda Merryman, Miss Linda Lilley and Miss Elizabeth Lohr. Many awards were presented to the Junior and Cadette Troops.

Leaders for the Cadettes are Mrs. Margaret Thompson and Mrs. Gladys Moon.

Many activities have been enjoyed by the scouts this past year, Brownies motored to Salem to attend the circus, Juniors and Cadettes had a marvelous time several week ends ago camping. They cooked out and took a nature hike headed by Mrs. Pat Torrence. Mr. Bill Sperry taught a First Aid Class for the girls in Troop 311.
